I have enclosed the following attachments:

Agreement

I fully understand that all of the course and study materials supplied to me by the Open International Interfaith Ministry's (OIIM) Seminary, the iNtuitive Times Institute (NTI) are for my own personal use only. I agree not to share this confidential information with any person, group, company or organization. I agree not to reproduce or transmit the whole or any part of this course by any means whatever, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying or by any information storage and retrieval system. I hereby fully understand and agree that acceptance by NTI is provisional and that I may be removed from any NTI instructional programme at any time, without recourse, for failure to meet its standards. I also agree to accept all financial conditions and agreements.

I clearly understand that studies in spiritual counselling and interfaith pastoral ministrations teach me how to facilitate and enhance spiritual well-being, both for myself and others. I also understand that the teachings or methods of spiritual counselling and interfaith pastoral ministrations are not for the purpose of diagnosing disease nor for providing medical advice. Should I engage in such behaviour, I do so entirely at my own risk and discretion. If medical care should be required, it is the recommendation of NTI and its authors, publishers and instructors that capable, qualified medical personnel be consulted.

NTI offers its published materials and courses simply for informational purposes, and I specifically relieve NTI and its authors, publishers and instructors from any responsibility for the consequences of following any of the recommendations contained in material offered by NTI. I release NTI, its authors, publishers and instructors from any damages, claims or liabilities whatsoever, as a result of the information presented. I know that completing this course of studies does not guarantee me an employment position.

I understand that NTI's programmes are not designed to meet any specific state, provincial or national licensing laws. It is my responsibility to investigate the licensing procedures where I will be practicing. I understand that I can start my studies anytime for the Distance Education component and that the intensive retreats will be scheduled according to the number of students registered. Level I studies are equivalent to one year of studies; Level II to two additional years of studies; and Level III to one more additional year of studies. Since I am proceeding with my studies at my own rate, I may complete my studies in a shorter or longer period of time. I have read through the Course Catalogue and fully understand the detailed outline of course content; description of methods (distance education and intensive retreats that include experiential learning as well as written and experiential examinations). In addition my work will be evaluated through my practicums and internships. I have read and understand the course fees and the book fees. I have the option of paying in advance by each module or by each Level in total. The fees for each of the modules and the four levels are outlined fully in the NTI Course Catalogue. These fees are, without notice, subject to a 10% change of those communicated in the most recent publication of the Course Catalogue. The intensive retreats must be paid in advance. I understand the NTI is the official seminary for OIIM, the Open International Interfaith Ministry®, and as such I need to be an OIIM member to participate in its seminary programme and wish to work within OIIM's structure. The OIIM Registration Board will accept NTI graduates and issue them the following credential: CASC, RSC, RSH, RSM, LM or OM depending on the program completed.

I hereby certify that all the above and attached information presented by me is true and accurate.
